

APPLICATION GUIDELINES FOR PREMIUM DOMAIN NAMES (“PDN GUIDELINES”)

Introduction

1. Premium domain names (“PDNs”) are names that are limited in quantity and command a higher value than non-premium domain names. Single character domain names (“SCDNs”) and numeric domain names (“NDNs”) will fall under this category.
2. PDNs are not available during general launch. Request for PDNs will be consolidated during general launch and SGNIC will release selected PDNs for bidding on a periodic basis. These names will be posted on our website – www.sgnic.sg – and will generally be allocated to the applicant with the highest bid.

General Principles

3. As all applications are submitted via SGNIC accredited registrars (“Accredited Registrar”), the applicant must inform itself of all terms and conditions of the Accredited Registrar, and shall be solely responsible for compliance therewith, including payment of any fees or deposits to the Accredited Registrar.
4. By submitting an application for PDNs, the applicant confirms that it meets the prevailing eligibility criteria for the relevant domain name category in which application is sought and agrees to SGNIC’s prevailing agreements and guidelines (including the Domain Name Registration Agreement and the Registration Policies, Procedures and Guidelines, which are available on the SGNIC website).
5. A Registered Trade Mark Holder who is the registered proprietor in Singapore of one or more Qualifying Trade Mark(s)¹ identical to the letter of the SCDN or the number of the NDN can claim priority for application.
6. Where there are two or more applicants for the same PDN (where no single applicant has priority over the rest of the applicants or all applicants have priority), the PDN will be put up for bidding.
7. SGNIC is not responsible for and bears no liability for any breach or failure of the Accredited Registrar to perform its obligations, including any failure to submit the application to SGNIC, or to refund or repay any fees to the applicant.

8. The PDN Guidelines shall be governed by Singapore law, and all applicants shall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts. All domain name disputes should still be filed with the Singapore Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy Secretariat.
9. SGNIC shall have the right to amend the PDN Guidelines at any time from time to time, and SGNIC will publish the amended version of the Guidelines on SGNIC's website. All applicants shall be solely responsible for reviewing SGNIC's website regularly in order to inform themselves of the amendments.

Application Procedure

10. Each application must be accompanied by the following and submitted through an Accredited Registrar:
 - (a) the base price ("Base Price") of the PDN applied for together with Goods and Services Tax payable at the prevailing rate thereon in Singapore Dollars made payable to "SINGAPORE NETWORK INFORMATION CENTRE (SGNIC) PTE LTD" (refer to Annex 1 for the applicable base price and payment method); and
 - (b) a Priority Claim Form (as set out in Annex 2), if the applicant wishes to claim priority to the name. The form must state the basis of the claim to such priority (eg. details of trade mark registration) together with any other requisite documents SGNIC may require.
11. Please refer to our website – www.sgnic.sg – for the application timeline and other additional instructions.

Bidding Procedure

12. In the event that bidding is required, SGNIC will notify all eligible applicants via the email address registered with SGNIC ("Bid Notification") and their registrars. A notice will also be posted on the SGNIC website and the public will also be invited to submit their bids on condition that they meet all the terms of this PDN Guidelines, including the submission of their application via SGNIC Accredited Registrars and the payment of the Base Price. SGNIC shall not be obliged to provide applicants any other form of notification. Each applicant agrees that SGNIC shall not be liable for any failure of the applicant to receive any Bid Notification, and that it will not initiate any claim action or proceeding against SGNIC or invalidate any bid exercise on account of such failure.

13. The bid will be conducted in the manner specified in the Bid Notification. Each applicant shall be solely responsible for taking all necessary measures required, at its own cost and expense, to participate in the bid. The bid results will be announced either via email and/or published on SGNIC's website on the date specified in each Bid Notification.
14. The PDN will be allocated to the highest bidder upon payment of the winning bid amount ("the Final Price") less only the Base Price. Applicants should note that the Final Price is exclusive of any registration fees payable by the applicant to its registrar in relation to a PDN application.
