2. Application Process

2.1 Prior to applying for Premium NDN via SGNIC's registry system, registrar should check SGNIC's Rules of Registration (<https://www.sgnic.sg/revised-policy-documents.html>) to determine whether the applicant is eligible for the category of interest before submitting the application.

2.2 Upon application, an email acknowledgement of application will be sent to the registrar. Registrar can submit proof of eligibility to SGNIC or wait for further instructions from SGNIC.

2.3 If proof of eligibility is required, SGNIC will request for supporting documents to be submitted within 7 days from date of SGNIC's email requesting for the supporting documents. SGNIC will reject the application if no supporting documents are received by the 7-day deadline.

¹ This amount will change as it depends on the prevailing Goods and Services Tax ("GST").

2.4 If proof of eligibility is not required or SGNIC is satisfied that the applicant meets the eligibility criteria, SGNIC will request for payment of premium fee within 7 days from date of SGNIC’s email requesting for payment. You can refer to section 3 below for payment instructions. SGNIC will reject the application if premium fees are not received within the payment deadline. If an extension of deadline is requested, registrar should provide proof that payment has been initiated but pending further action from stakeholders.
